

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP HARVEST

1-1-2024

Current Activities Report

This report aims to provide a clear picture of the status of current activities initiated during the previous policy period.

Nr.	Project/Activity	Status
1.	Support (people and resources) provided for the start-up of 6 church communities in the areas of The Hague, Rotterdam, Zoetermeer and Apeldoorn.	Execution
2.	Support (people and resources) provided to the missionary projects Triomfator in Brazil (shelter for street children), Mission2Asia in Borneo (shelter for neglected children) and Call2theNations in Sumatra (work among the Muslim community).	Execution
3.	Sponsorship recruitment Projects started by several volunteers for the missionary projects.	Developing
4.	From The Woman I am (TWIA) 3 workshops were provided for women about relationship issues, both in the Netherlands and in Suriname. A training was provided for the leaders of a daycare center in The Hague. Furthermore, an online quiz was organized in which books about relationships were raffled.	Completed
5.	4 HGN workshops provided to support leadership and support the development of your own network group.	Completed
6.	From Safe House Ministries, various Iranian and Afghan communities, churches and organizations have been visited and equipped with Christian education, and music concerts have been provided. In addition, a number of music productions have been made.	Developing
7.	From Successful Living the book "El Shaddai" has been published and various translation assignments have been completed.	Execution
8.	From Creator Vision, several audio and video recordings were made for seminars, weddings and clips. Rental of video equipment also took place.	Execution
9.	As a result of the introduction of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) privacy legislation, all our administrative procedures and protocols have been reviewed and made 'GDPR-proof' where necessary.	Execution
10.	The foundation has been able to provide almost €39,000 in financial support to various missionary projects. In addition, various fundraising initiatives have been undertaken.	Execution
11.	In the past period, several mission meetings have been organized with the aim of providing more knowledge about the activities in the mission field, promoting the various projects and recruiting financial donors.	Execution
12.	Collaboration with St. Jaezer has ended.	Completed
13.	Inspirational education in various areas such as spirituality, relationship building, healthy living, self-reliance and money management offered free of charge via the foundation's website.	Execution
14.	Weekly consultation via WhatsApp video calls has taken place with all project leaders.	Execution